2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
3 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

4 Federal Trade Commission, et al.,
5 Plaintiffs

6 v.

7 International Markets Live, Inc., et al.,
8 Defendants

Case No. 2:25-cv-00760-CDS-NJK
Preliminary Injunction

9
10 The Federal Trade Commission (“Commission”) and the State of Nevada (collectively, 11 “Plaintiffs”), filed their complaint for Permanent Injunction, Monetary Judgment, and Other
12 Relief pursuant to Sections 13(b) and 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15
13 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57b, the Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act
14 (“Telemarketing Act”), 15 U.S.C. §§ 6101-6108, Section 5 of the Restore Online Shoppers’
15 Confidence Act (“ROSCA”), 15 U.S.C. § 8404, and the Deceptive Trade provisions of Chapter
16 598 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, §§ 598.0915(5) and 598.0923(1)(c). The Plaintiffs also 17 applied for a preliminary injunction, limited asset freeze, appointment of a monitor, and other 18 relief.

19 FINDINGS

20 The Court, having considered the complaint, the motion for preliminary injunction,
21 declarations, exhibits, and the memorandum of points and authorities filed in support thereof,
22 finds that:

23 A. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and there is good
24 cause to believe that it will have jurisdiction over all parties hereto and that venue in this district
25 is proper.
26

1 B. There is good cause to believe that the Defendants have engaged in and are likely
2 to engage in acts or practices that violate Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), the 3 Telemarketing Sales Rule (“TSR”), 16 C.F.R. Part 310, and Chapter 598 of the Nevada Revised
4 Statutes, that the ROSCA Defendants, as defined below, have engaged in and are likely to engage
5 in acts or practices that violate Section 4 of ROSCA, 15 U.S.C. § 8403, and that plaintiffs are 6 therefore likely to prevail on the merits of this action.

7 C. As demonstrated by documentation of Defendants’ advertisements, documents
8 and information provided by Defendants to plaintiffs and submitted in support of plaintiffs’
9 motion for preliminary injunction, testimony from Defendants’ employees, consumer 10 declarations, a report by plaintiffs’ survey expert, and the additional documentation filed by the 11 plaintiffs, the plaintiffs have established a likelihood of success in showing that Defendants
12 have: (1) made false or unsubstantiated claims regarding consumers’ ability to earn substantial
13 income trading in the financial markets, including consumers’ ability to do so even if they lacked 14 trading experience, significant time, or investable capital; (2) made false claims that their 15 instructors were audited by the FTC; (3) made false or unsubstantiated claims regarding 16 consumers ability to earn substantial income from Defendants’ Business Venture; and (4) made 17 material misrepresentations and false and misleading statements while engaged in 18 telemarketing. Plaintiffs have also established a likelihood of success in showing that the 19 ROSCA Defendants have: (i) failed to clearly and conspicuously disclose all material terms of 20 their transactions before obtaining purchasers’ billing information and (ii) failed to obtain
21 purchasers’ express informed consent before obtaining purchasers’ billing information.

22 D. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable harm will result
23 from Defendants’ ongoing violations of the FTC Act, the TSR, and Nevada Revised Statutes, and 24 ROSCA Defendants’ ongoing violations of ROSCA, unless Defendants and ROSCA Defendants
25 are restrained and enjoined by order of this Court.
26

1 E. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the 2 Court's ability to grant effective final relief for consumers – including monetary restitution,
3 rescission, or refunds –will occur from the sale, transfer, destruction, or other disposition or
4 concealment by Defendants of their assets or records, unless Defendants are immediately
5 restrained and enjoined by order of this Court.

6 F. Good cause exists for appointing an independent monitor over the Monitored
7 Entities, as defined below, placing a limited freeze on the Corporate Defendants' assets,
8 requiring preservation of the Individual Defendants' assets, permitting the Monitor and 9 plaintiffs to have immediate access to the Defendants' business premises, and permitting the 10 plaintiffs and the Monitor to take expedited discovery.

11 G. Weighing the equities and considering plaintiffs' likelihood of ultimate success
12 on the merits, a preliminary injunction with a limited asset freeze on the Corporate Defendants'
13 assets, the preservation of the Individual Defendants' assets, the appointment of a monitor,
14 immediate access to business premises, expedited discovery, and other relief is in the public
15 interest.

16 H. This Court has authority to issue this order pursuant to Section 13(b) and 19 of 17 the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b); Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65; and the All Writs Act, 28
18 U.S.C. § 1651.

19 I. No security is required of any agency of the United States for the issuance of a 20 preliminary injunction. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).

21 DEFINITIONS

22 For the purpose of this order, the following definitions shall apply:

23 A. "Business Venture" means any written or oral business arrangement, however
24 denominated, whether or not covered by 16 C.F.R. Part 437, that consists of providing payment

6 must be made through the same means through which the communication
7 is presented. In any communication made through both visual and audible
8 means, such as a television advertisement, the disclosure must be presented 9 simultaneously in both the visual and audible portions of the 10 communication even if the representation requiring the disclosure is made 11 in only one means.
- 12 (2) A visual disclosure, by its size, contrast, location, the length of time it

18 to easily hear and understand it.
- 19 (4) In any communication using an interactive electronic medium, such as the 20 Internet, an app, or software, the disclosure must be unavoidable. A
21 disclosure is not Clear and Conspicuous if a consumer must take any action, 22 such as clicking on a hyperlink or hovering over an icon, to perceive and 23 understand it.
- 24 (5) The disclosure must use diction and syntax understandable to ordinary 25 consumers and must appear in each language in which the representation
26 that requires the disclosure appears.

1 (6) The disclosure must comply with these requirements in each medium
2 through which it is received, including all electronic devices and face-to-
3 face communications.

4 (7) The disclosure must not be contradicted or mitigated by, or inconsistent
5 with, anything else in the communication.
